

I am very much concerned about the deregulation. This will give a few powerful companies virtually a monopoly of news media and not allow minority voices to get attention. This is not what is meant by freedom of press. At this point I oppose the proposed deregulation.